B I

Hi! I'm passionate about bringing the gray wolf home to the Rocky Mountains, so I've joined the Rocky Mountain Wolf Project team to help raise money to educate the public about the importance of wolf restoration.

Will you help me hit my goal of $15,000 by chipping in now?

Give your page a title — it could include your name or organization.

Next, use the body text to tell people why you're excited to raise money for the Rocky Mountain Wolf Project.

Last, give your page a unique web URL—most people put their name here.

Don't forget to make your page public!

i Donors give more when they can watch real-time progress towards a communal goal. Setting a goal here will automatically place a goal thermometer on your contribution form. As donations come in, your thermometer will automatically chart real-time progress. You can edit, cancel, or update the goal at any time.

Additional amounts

If you would like your goal to increase as your fundraising total does, enter a comma-separated list of additional goals. ie: 500,1000,2000.

Save goal and continue

Next, it's time to set your goals! You may want to start small and increase your goal each time you hit it, or you could go ahead and let everyone know your big goal! You could also choose to set a goal for the size of your wolf pack — in that case, leave the dollar amount blank and choose how many friends you want to try to get to chip in!
